

Fraction number line

Name: _____

What fraction number lines are for:

Comparing fractions

How to use them:

Number lines can help you compare two fractions. On the number line, use a marker or colored pencil to show the distance from 0 to the first fraction you want to compare. Then do the same with the second fraction. Decide if the first fraction is greater than, less than, or equal to the second fraction.

