

Question jar

Tired of asking “How was school today?” Use these creative questions instead. Cut out the question strips. You and your child can write your own questions on the blank strips. Then place the strips in a jar, box, or bowl. Each day, have your child pick a question to answer.

What was the best part of your day?

What made you laugh today?

Who did you sit with at lunch today?

Which subject was your favorite today?

What was the most interesting thing you learned today?

What was the hardest thing you did today?

What did you like most about school today?
