

Lunchbox notes

to make your child smile

How much does a pirate pay for corn?

Answer: A buck-an-ear!

Which school supply is the king?

Answer: A ruler!

What did the marker say to the pencil?

Answer: I see your point. Boy, you're sharp!

What do you call a sleeping dinosaur?

Answer: A dino-snore!

Where do astronauts keep their food?

Answer: In their lunch-boxes!

How did the bee get to school?

Answer: On the school buzz!

Lunchbox notes

to inspire your child

Be the best you that you can be today.

You're on the right track.

Did you bring your E.A.R.?

Remember you can control your Effort, your Attitude, and how you Respond to things!

Let it go,
let it go!

Today's challenge
will make you stronger.

You are special.

Lunchbox notes to say “I’m thinking of you”

I’m confident in who you are and what you can do.

I’ll be thinking of you today.

I’m so happy you’re my child.

What fun thing will we do when you get home today?

I hope your _____ test
went OK.

You studied hard,
and I’m proud of you.

You can do it.

I hope today
is going well
for you.

Lunchbox notes in emoji sentences

(I love you)

U R A

(You are a rock star)

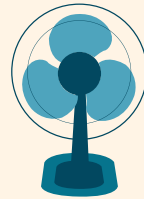

(Don't be so corny)

U R Gr8

(You are great)

U R

-tastic

(You are fantastic)

(Hi, cutie pie)

Lunchbox notes

blank

